

Pedagogy - Urgent Need to Change!

We know that each student is unique and likes to learn in a way which aligns with his personality. Yet for years we have been thrusting pedagogy on our hapless children without consideration and sensitivity.

No wonder, despite the best curriculum design, teaching infrastructure, ambience, money and resources, all students don't derive the same benefit. In fact most students are left exhausted and frustrated after their academic pursuits and become averse to learning.

Teachers' students like

We all had our favorite teachers. Did you ever ponder, what made you to like them? Simple, they appealed to your way of learning, connected with you beyond pedagogy and were sensitive and respectful of who you were as a personality. They gave you the space to find your way, just being their all the time to support you in your journey. Never imposing their ideas, never judging, ever patient, always listening and more importantly playing together to make the journey enjoyable.

Be a Master!

A master leaves a deep impact on students. He doesn't use discipline as an approach but aims to make his students 'disciples'. There is a difference. You can become one as well!

Teacher to Master A transformational program for teachers!

This program is designed to help teachers learn key psychological aspects in teaching, guiding, coaching, and mentoring your students.

It aims to help you transform and grow your students into more confident, self-assured, self-determined and conscientious individuals.

A journey which gives meaning to your life!

5 Factors and 30 Facets that make up a student's personality!

It's your nature Vs. their nature!

In order for you to relate to your students at the deepest level, you need to understand their personality infrastructure.

You need to know, deep down what they are made of – their nature and how, that influences all their interactions with the universe in which they are in.

Understanding student personality is like having in your possession an “user manual” for the most complex being in the world – the human personality.

Using this manual you can learn and become highly skilled in guiding your students life engine, towards greater meaning and SUCCESS!
